

The background of the entire page is a vibrant green. Overlaid on this are several dark, almost black, shapes that have a fine, pebbled texture, similar to leather or a certain type of paper. These shapes are irregular and organic, resembling large, overlapping leaves or perhaps the scales of a fish. They are arranged in a way that creates a sense of depth and movement. A horizontal black band cuts across the middle of the image, serving as a backdrop for the title text.

Dux Hi-Y Always There to Get Our Assemblies Set Up

The Dux Hi-Y this year consisted of twenty members selected from outstanding Senior, Junior, and Sophomore boys. This included nine Sophomores, making it the youngest group in several years. Group activities and services of the Hi-Yers included preparation for assemblies, collection of donations for Seaside Kids Inc., and help with the coming Little League program. The club received a percentage of the donations collected for Seaside Kids this year. Part of the funds was used for a trip to Portland to view a Buckaroo hockey match, which they lost six to five to Vancouver. The remainder of the earnings is to be used for school and community projects.

Ralph Schlappi

The annual One Act Play Contest was held December 17 and 18. This is the time of the year when a few members of each class puts on a play to compete against each other for awards. Four Thespians, plus their assistants, direct each of the four plays, and hold auditions for each part in the play. After many weeks of practicing, memorizing, and rehearsing, the plays are then performed. They are judged for many things; including each member of the cast and the play itself. Then the winners are announced. It is a long awaited moment, for in the background of each individual is going around in their minds the memory of the many long hard hours.

Nobody Sleeps

...drama may perhaps be described as the adventure of a masterpiece among souls. Drama is a very active activity and a few students spend most of their own time on this one activity. This year's one act contest caused much confusion and time as usual and was well worth it to all. "High Window" was put on as extra entertainment by the Thespians of Seaside. Part of the faculty entertained us here at Seaside, with a play entitled "Why Teachers Go Nuts". It was very hilarious and proved to be very enjoyable. This play might be considered the most entertaining one of the year. This year we had only three plays participate due to the lack of co-operation of a few of the members of the Sophomore class.

Grub Day '69

Sun, Fun, and No School

Not much work was done by the above people but good-times were had by all, including Elizabeth Erickson and whoever that might be with her.

Seniors spent Grub Day scattered from one end of the school to the other keeping themselves busy.

Amidst Confusion and Controversy, Seniors Get Their Grub Day

Many people spent the afternoon relaxing, while others spent the afternoon getting refreshed as those above. Some energetic ones even played softball and used the track equipment. Later in the afternoon as the temperature kept climbing you could find most everyone on the back porch steps talking. Finally around three o'clock the Seniors were dismissed from the school grounds to go where they pleased and to do what they wanted.

Science Club offers the scientific hobbyist or the amateur experimenter a facility to expand his or her interest and knowledge. Members of the Club work on interesting projects, participate in field trip and field projects. Requirements for membership into Science Club are non-existent. Anyone who desires to join this organization may do so by merely signing up with the membership officer. There are no requirements in reference to grades or courses taken in school. The club consists of its members and an advisor. Science Club is probably the most educational and interesting club in Seaside High School.

Respectably,

Student Officers carry out various duties. One of Bob White's duties is to introduce guests at our national assemblies. Among Cassie Sweeney's duties is that of taking care of student body funds. Jim Goetze maintains parliamentary procedure at all student council meetings. Ray Billings makes known student body activities to the community. Jacie Sweeney takes minutes at student council meetings and relates them to the student body.

Council in Action

This Years Council Has a Hard Time

Student Council was headed this year by Student Body President Steve Herrmann. Student Council was composed of an Executive Committee of Student Body Officers, a Parliamentarian, and a Publicity Director. The remainder of Student Council were the home room representatives, and the four class presidents. The home room representatives were elected to represent their home rooms at council meetings. This system was a change from last year and its purpose was to give more equal representation to all the members of the student body. Towards the end of the school year a few students were allowed to observe the council meetings and see what the council's function was. This years Student Council had a car wash, a pep dance, and supported our two foster children.

The Honor Society of Seaside High School is a chartered member of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools. To become eligible for membership into the society, a student must meet high standards in character, scholarship, leadership, and service. To hold membership a student must maintain a grade point average of 3.3. Each spring eligible students are selected for membership and announced at an assembly before the entire student body. Entrance into the association becomes official at the Honors Banquet held later in the spring. At the same banquet outstanding seniors are recognized and presented with dictionaries. As a service to the school, the Honor Society presents the annual Homecoming Dance each fall. Our advisor is Mr. Gerald Westerholm.

'68-'69 Rally Adds

This year's Varsity Rally cheerleaders are: l. to r., Jacie Sweeney, Cassie Sweeney, Carol Haubner, kneeling, with Judy Cole, and Billie Bartlett, standing.

Spirit, spirit, spirit ! That is what we have tried to bring forth throughout the year with our skits and our pep assemblies. Varsity is open to Juniors and Senior girls and boys, and JV is open to Sophomores. Something new this year were Frosh cheerleaders. They were chosen just before basketball season but the annual tryouts are held each spring. During the summer, the newly elected members attend the rally clinics to get new ideas for the following year. This year rally helped in community and school projects and served at the many different sport banquets. The cheerleaders job is to try to promote spirit for the sports and spirit throughout the school.

Whitecaps is a service club of girls, who have accumulated a GPA of 2.5 and a good standing in the school. The girls are chosen from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. This fall we helped at the football games by taking money and selling programs. We helped the retail selling class in the concession stand. We assisted at the basketball games, by working in the candy store. This year we served at the winter and spring sports banquets, ushered at the annual Miss Seaside pageant, and at the Brothers Four Concert. In February, we sponsored the annual Snoball dance. All of the girls helped decorate, and our dance turned out very successfully. A new policy we have this year is letting boys join as honorary members. In the spring we take a trip to a destination of our choice as a climax to our year as a service organization.

Pep Club is an organization of girls, open to Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, who are interested and willing to give their time, effort, and ideas to promote and support the spirit of the school. We sponsored the Sadie Hawkins dance in November. We also held car washes and bake food sales to earn money in order to buy paint to paint signs with. The signs are put up on the cafe and in the hall to give spirit to the team. With a lot of work, this club can be fun and profitable to everyone.

Frosh and J.V. Combine

Before school started this year, it was thought that only a few Freshmen boys would turn out for football. Because of this, schedules were changed calling for the combination Freshmen and Junior Varsity teams. As it turned out the team was composed of 24 Freshmen and 6 Sophomores. The season started a little slow since the Freshmen did not begin practice until school began. The first game was after only six days of practice for the Freshmen. The team improved with time and the Freshmen went undefeated for the 2nd year in a row with a record of 3-0 for Freshmen games. The J. V. record was 1-4 for the season. The team voted Richard Harrison as "Most Improved" and Tom Phillips as an outstanding player. With the number of Freshmen that turned out for football the future is rather good.

Fall Highlights

Fall Dances

Bring Royalty

The new school year started off this fall with several activities including the "Welcome Frosh Dance " with Lisa Amey and Jim Haubner being crowned as Frosh King and Queen. Another was the "Thank-You Sophomore Dance" with the appropriate theme of "Land of the Giants." Fall dances were concluded with the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance which usually concludes Twirp Week (this year was an exception) with Jane Meyer the lucky girl to catch her man Chris Schragger and become Lil Abner and Daisy Mae.

Mike Sopko and Kris Kershul have a coke at the Thank-You Sophomore Dance while Kipp Gray and Becca Blacketer have a private conversation.

Karey Melhoff, Sujin Santisakultam, Karen Scharback, and Peggy Darling, make it on the sidelines.

Jacie and Gordon Reign

Homecoming this year came early, the first week in October. Construction of the bonfire was started in advance, despite conflicts at school. Many seniors and juniors worked valiantly all week gathering burning materials and depositing them at the end of 12th Ave. The eve of the bonfire found seniors "guarding" the wood pile throughout the night. The next day students were dismissed early to move the wood to the beach. After many stuck vehicles, including Pete Broome's jeep below left, the bonfire was completed. The bonfire was finally lit, after a serpentine, and burned late into the night, despite a rain shower.

Over Homecoming

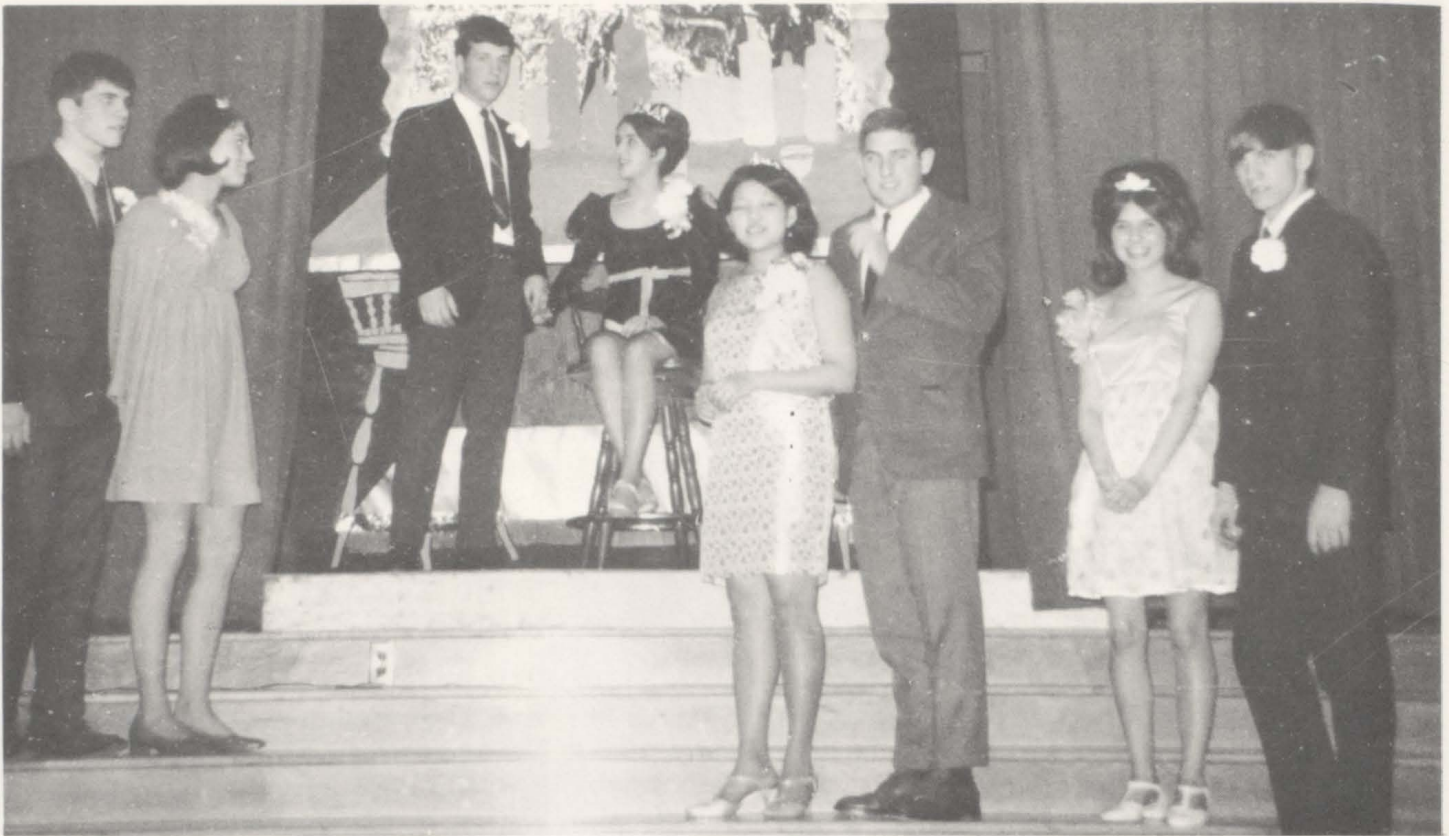

Jacie Sweeney was crowned Homecoming Queen by Mark Reynolds, president of Honor Society, at a pep assembly the day of the big game. That night the players ran through the traditional victory arch and the Homecoming Court circled the field in a convertible. Seaside lost its 1968 Homecoming game to Rainier, 7-0. At the dance Saturday night, Gordon Weller was crowned King Football by Homecoming Queen Jacie.

Senior Elizabeth Erickson attended the 1968 Homecoming game along with many other students and townspeople, despite the threatening weather conditions.

Once Upon a Time

Entering the door the couples were greeted with the eerie sight of a mortuary with an actual coffin and dead person, Jane Meyer. Inside they enter into the exciting world of the "Roaring 20's" with a Model 'T', Roulette Wheel, Bathtub Gin, and a bar throne. Junior, Rebecka Blacketer was crowned 1969 Sno-Ball Queen and set at the bar along with Senior princess Sujin Santiskultan, Sophomore princess Kelly Hertig, and Freshman princess Rena Blacketer.

Jane Meyer lies in state at the front entrance to greet the Sno-Ball couples. Ghostly isn't it.

Senior princesses are Billie Bartlett and Rod Chestnut, Trudy Zumbuhl and Craig Bremer, and Hazel Skaling and John Norling.

1969 Prom

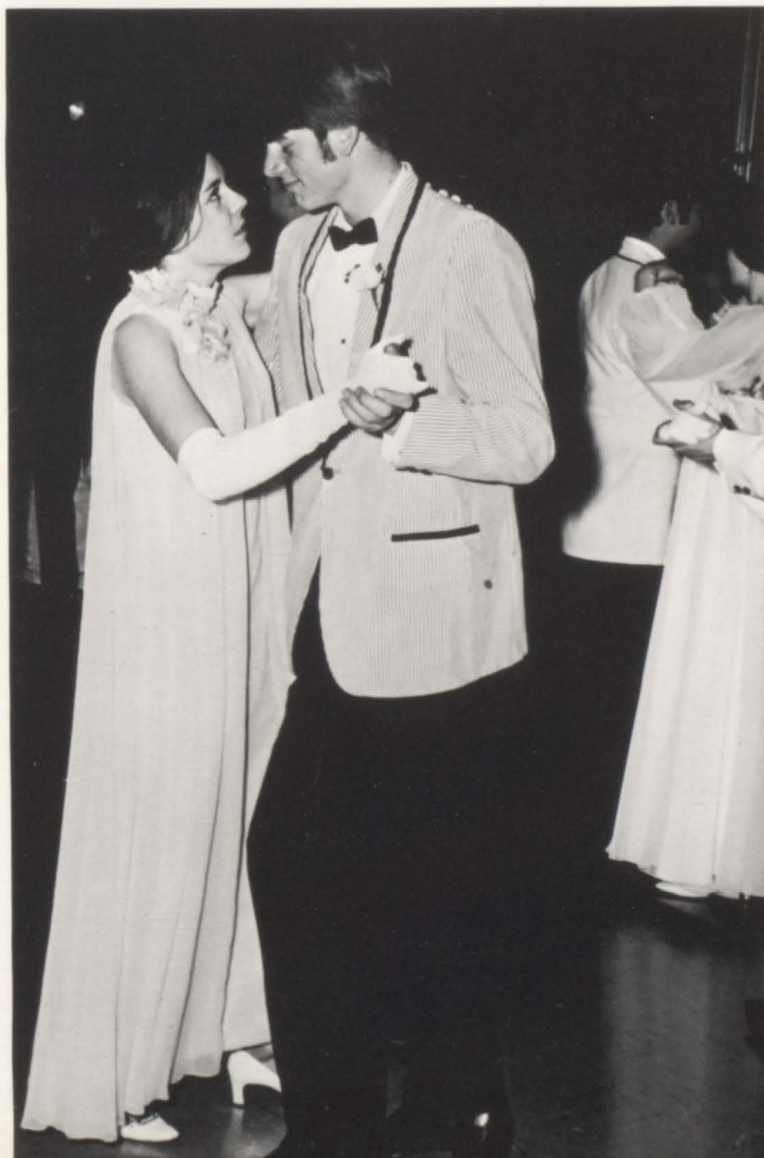

A night of mystic enchantment was enjoyed by many couples at the 1969 Junior-Senior Prom. This years theme was "The Oracle of Creation" with an enormous Greek mural on one wall and great marble pillars. Announced by the Junior class president, Carol Haubner, radiant Teresa Long escorted by Wayne Wilson was crowned as Queen of the tiny Kingdom along with her royal court.

Lee Chittim is Chosen Our Sweetheart for 1969

"Portrait of a Sweetheart" was the theme for the 11th Miss Seaside Pageant in March. The 10 contestants were chosen in January from the Senior girls to compete for the title. They spent a busy month attending luncheons, speaking engagements, and practicing for the actual Pageant. They also appeared on Telescope TV. The day of the Pageant they attended the judges luncheon and had swim suit competition and interviews with the judges. Saturday evening the competition was narrowed to five finalist, who were each asked a question to answer spontaneously. They were then judged on their poise, ingenuity, and personality. Then our new Miss Seaside, Lee Ellen Chittim was chosen.

It Used To Be

Miss Lee Ellen Chittim is crowned by her predecessor Julie Paulsen, Miss Seaside for 1968. Surrounding her are Carol Raney-1st runner-up and Elizabeth Erickson-2nd runner-up. Right; Marjean Langley, Miss Oregon for 1968, dances to "For Once In My Life," dedicated to the ten semi-finalists.

During the early part of the program, the ten Miss Seaside semi-finalists danced and sang "I Enjoy Being A Girl."

Those Were the Days

Once upon a time there was a tavern,
Where we use to raise a glass or two,
Remember how we laughed away the hours,
Think of all the great things we would do.

Then the busy years went rushing by us,
We lost our star emotions on the way,
If by chance I'd see you in the tavern,
We'd smile at one another and we'd say-

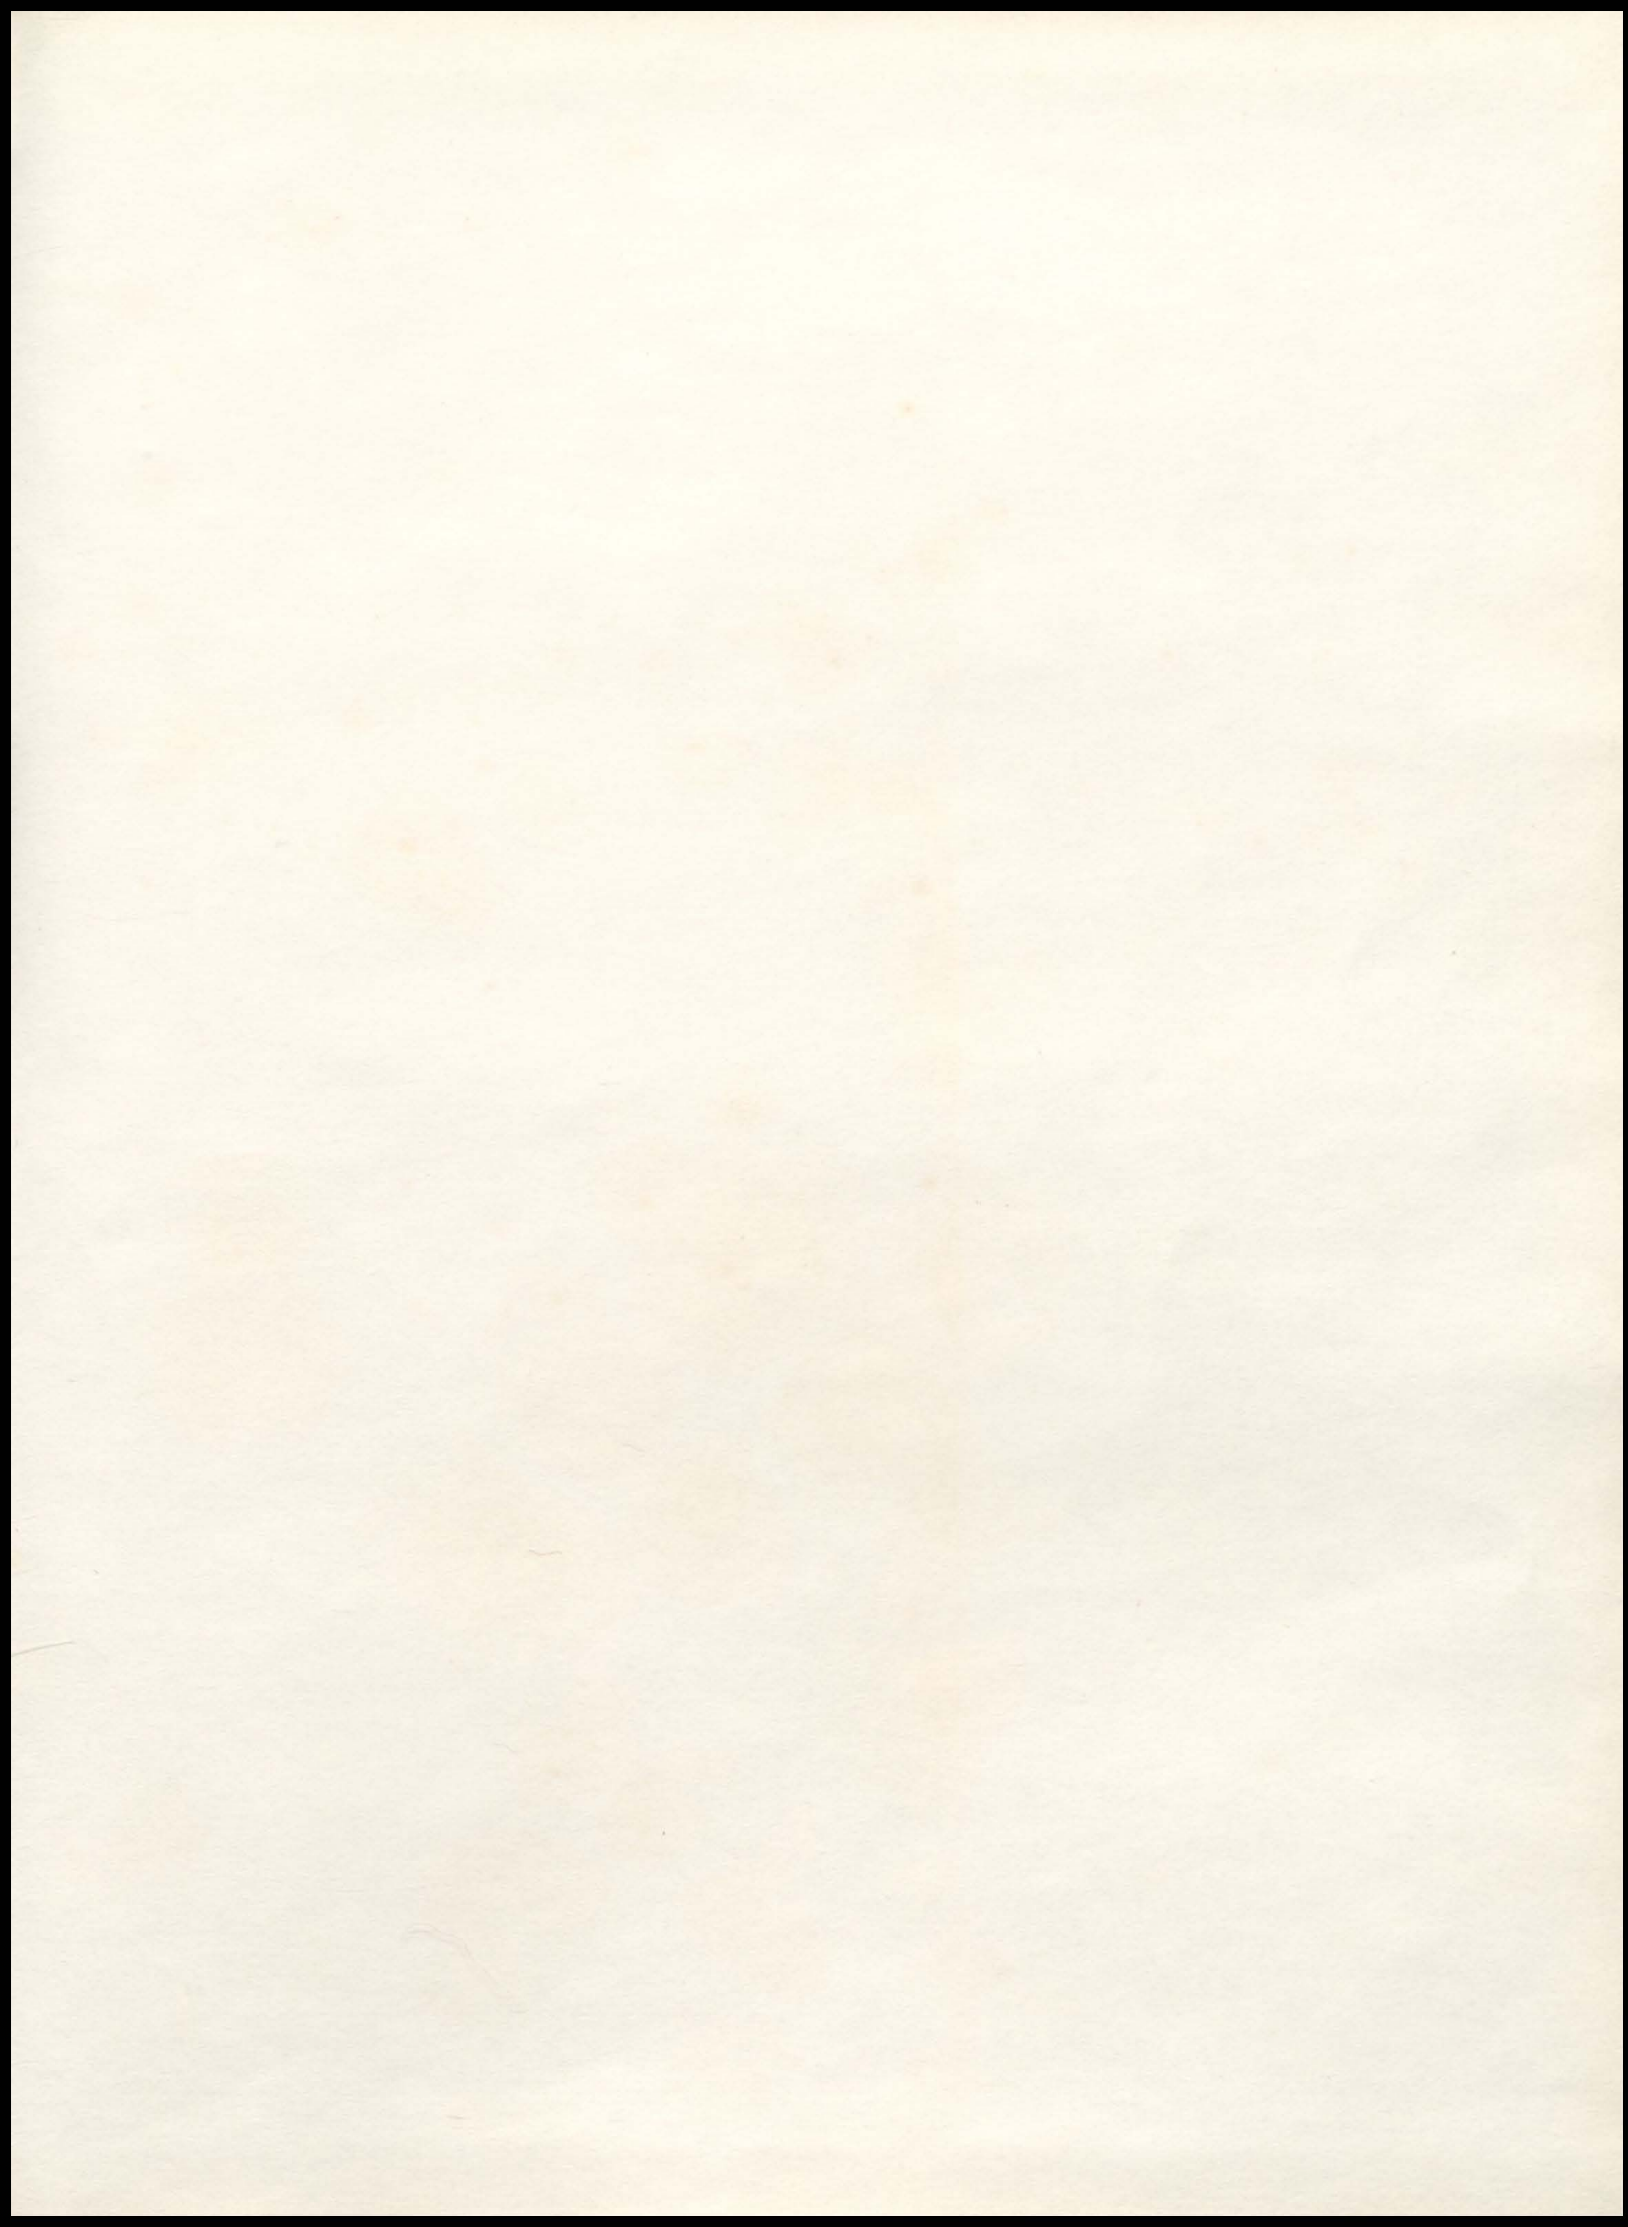

Those were the days my friend,
We'd thought they'd never end,
We'd sing and dance forever & a day,
We'd live the life we choose,
We'd fight and never lose,
For we were young & sure to have our way.

Just tonight I stood before the tavern,
Nothing seemed the way it use to be,
In the glass I saw strange reflections,
Was that lonely woman really me?

Through the door there came familiar laughter,
I saw your face and heard you call my name,
Oh, my friend, we're older but no wiser,
For in our hearts the dreams are still the same.

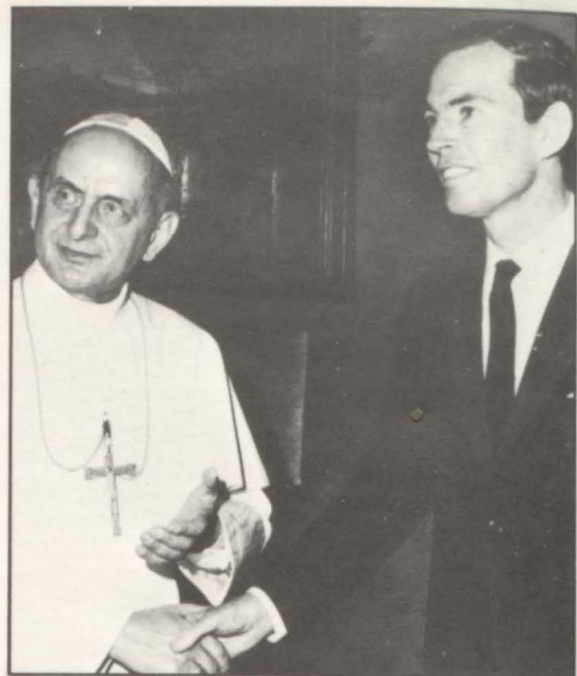

Those were the days my friend,
We thought they'd never end,
We'd sing & dance forever & a day,
We'd live the life we'd choose,
We'd fight and never lose,
Those were the days, oh yes, those were the days.
